Mamata: 800K names axed in first supplementary list of SIR

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Naxalbari, March 25

WEST BENGAL CHIEF Minister Mamata Banerjee on Wednesday claimed 800,000 names have been deleted in the first supplementary list from the 2.7 million electors whose voting eligibility was adjudicated as part of the SIR exercise. Addressing an election rally at Naxalbari in the Siliguri subdivision of Darjeeling district, she slammed the BJP for "causing misery" to the people by enforcing an "ill-planned SIR".

West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee at a public meeting on the outskirts of Siliguri on Wednesday

The chief minister demanded that physical copies of the supplementary list published online be immediately made available so that the information on the deletion figure could be verified.

from the first supplementary list. But where is that list? Why have hard copies of that list not yet been put up in government offices so far?" she posed.

"I can only verify the information after that list is displayed," she added.

Stating that the "lack of transparency" over addition and deletion figures in the first supplementary list has left affected citizens in a fix over their subsequent move for redressal, Banerjee said the TMC would set up camps to aid such citizens with free legal consultancy.

"Only after that list gets displayed in booths can those, whose names have been unfairly deleted, fill up application forms to move tribunals. We have to fight this according to the provisions of law, and TMC will provide legal assistance to every victim free of charge," she declared.

The first supplementary list of 6 million-odd names of voters under judicial scrutiny was published by the Election Commission late on Monday night.

However, the poll body is yet to officially confirm either the total number of adjudicated voters in that list or the deletion figure, amid initial claims from Manoj Agarwal, the West Bengal chief electoral officer, that around 2.9 million cases have been disposed of so far.

Holding the BJP responsible for "220 SIR-induced deaths", the chief minister claimed the "BJP should be ashamed for the SIR fallout". She claimed that half of those who died were Hindus and the other half Muslims.

BJP to win more than 177 seats in Bengal: Suwendu

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Kolkata, March 25

SENIOR BJP LEADER Suwendu Adhikari on Wednesday claimed that around 7.9 million "fake" names have been removed from the state's electoral rolls during the SIR, and asserted that this would help the BJP secure more than 177 seats in the Assembly elections next month.

Addressing a meeting of party workers in Purba Medinipur district, Adhikari alleged that the ruling Trinamool Congress always relied on fraudulent voters to remain in power and that the ongoing revision process began to eliminate such entries, which would help the BJP win the elections.

Using a series of metaphors to describe the deletions, the BJP leader said, "Breakfast saw 58 lakh names removed, lunch witnessed removal of seven lakh; and during evening tea, 14 lakh more names gone. Dinner is yet to be served."

Conviction, not compulsion, driving reforms, says FM

RESPONDING TO CRITICISM that goods and services tax (GST) rate cuts announced in September 2025 have not yielded results, Sitharaman said she was "shocked" at such observation. She pointed to strong growth in the automobile sector, noting that retail passenger vehicle sales recorded a 26.1% increase — the highest for any February in 2026. Rural passenger vehicle sales rose by 34% while urban sales grew by 21%. This surge, she said, has particularly benefited Tamil Nadu, especially the Chennai-Sriperumbudur-Oradgam automobile corridor — often referred to as the "Detroit of Asia" — spread across Kanchipuram and Thiruvallur districts.

On the fiscal front, the finance minister said the Centre's fiscal deficit is projected to decline to 4.3% of GDP in FY27 from 9.3% in FY21. She added that India's debt-to-GDP ratio is on a downward trajectory and remains lower than that of many major economies.

Rejecting the Opposition's claims that the middle class has been overlooked in the 2026-27 Budget, Sitharaman cited several relief measures. These include a reduction in TCS rates on payments made under the Liberalised Remittance Scheme (LRS) for foreign education and medical treatment, and a sharp cut in TCS on overseas tour packages to 2% from 20%.

She also noted that the Finance Bill provides for customs duty exemption on 17 critical drugs, along with duty-free import of medicines for personal use. To further ease compliance, taxpayers will now be allowed to file updated income tax returns even when reassessment proceedings have been initiated. A foreign asset disclosure scheme has also been introduced for small taxpayers.

To reduce friction at airports, the Bill proposes the rationalisation of tariffs on gifts and items brought into India. "The passengers will now have far less to worry about when they land in India," she said, adding that these measures are aimed at benefiting middle-class citizens and ordinary travellers rather than high-net-worth individuals.

Reiterating the government's approach, Sitharaman said a trust-based tax administration is being strengthened by reducing unnecessary hardship for honest taxpayers. She added that MSMEs, farmers, and cooperatives remain central to employment generation, production, and overall economic development, and are being supported through various policy measures.

Addressing concerns over the levy of cess, Sitharaman said the Constitution explicitly allows the Centre to impose cess and surcharge. "Constitution makers knew what they were doing, and we all pay respect to them," she said. She further noted that "resources from many cesses are 100% transferred to states."

Providing data to support her point, she said that between 2019-20 and 2024-25, ₹15.14 lakh crore was collected through cesses, while ₹15.97 lakh crore was transferred to states under various schemes. Similarly, an additional ₹74,000 crore has been spent on health and education over and above the collections from related cesses. Between FY15 and FY27, total cess collections stood at ₹7.03 lakh crore while utilisation reached ₹7.77 lakh crore. "More than what is collected under cesses and surcharges is being spent," she said.

Owaisi accuses TMC of using Muslim votes

ALLEGING THAT THE TMC bagged Muslim votes but did nothing for the community, AIMIM Chief Asaduddin Owaisi on Wednesday claimed that Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee's politics helped the BJP grow in West Bengal.

Addressing a press conference in Kolkata, Owaisi claimed people of Bengal were suffocated, and his party has joined hands with Humayun Kabir's AJUP to provide the alternative they are looking for.

"Our alliance with Humayun Kabir is aimed at stopping the exploitation of weaker sections in West Bengal and empowering them," said the Hyderabad MP.

Zubeen died of 'accidental drowning': Singapore coroner

Singer Zubeen Garg

GURDIP SINGH
Singapore, March 25

A STATE CORONER on Wednesday upheld the Singapore Police Coast Guard's (PCG) finding that there was no foul play in the death of Indian singer Zubeen Garg and ruled the death an accidental drowning near an island of the city state in September last year.

Opposition parties on Wednesday questioned the Assam police, which has slapped murder charges against several accused in the death of Zubeen Garg, after the Singapore Police Coast Guard's finding ruling out foul play in the singer's demise was upheld by a coroner there. Chief Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma, however, maintained there was "no difference" between the Singapore conclusion and the state police's chargesheet, and it would "strengthen" the case here.

Directly addressing a concern raised by Garg's wife regarding the PCG's finding that there was no foul play, State Coroner Adam Nakhoda stated that the PCG had conducted a comprehensive and thorough investigation in this case.

Instead, Nakhoda found that Garg's death was "simply due to an unfortunate and tragic accidental drowning" and that no one had forced, coerced or pushed him into the water.

There was also no evidence that the swimmers rescuing him had deliberately held his face underwater, the Channel News Asia reported, citing Nakhoda.

Garg, 52, had been intoxicated, and this likely impaired his judgment in his decisions, said Nakhoda.
